Swigert, of the Elmendorf stud farm, in Kentucky. This was the companion of "King Craft," Lord Falmouth's first derby winner, recently purchased by Mr. Swigert. A CONCLAVE.

The Knights of Labor and Lutherans Confer With Mutual Profit.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 23.—Frederick Wilkins, chairman of the state executive board of the Knights of Labor, to-day had a long conference with Pastor Bading, president of the Wisconsin synod of the Lutheran church and president of the Lutheran theological seminary of this city. The conference, though practical, was of a most amicable nature. Mutual explanations removed all existing misunderstandings and an agreement relating to the Fond du Lac difficulty was arrived at. A summary of the result of the conference will be forwarded by Wilkins to General Master Workman Powderly, together with a statement of the position of the Lutheran church on the question at issue. Wilkins is strongly of the opinion that one very important result of the conference will be a modus vivendi by which all present friction been the Catholic and Lutheran churches and Knights of Labor will be removed and future difficulties averted.

A Lilly White Negress.

AT IT AGAIN.

The Brooklyn City Street Cars Tied by a Strike of Drivers.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—The eleven lines of the Brooklyn City railroad company street cars are tied up to-day. The men claim the company have failed to carry out the agreement made with the men last night in regard to the hours of work. Another cause is that the company would not recognize the Knights of Labor nor the Empire Protective association in its negotiations with its men. About 8 o'clock a dozen cars were started under the protection of the police. In East New York one of the cars was attacked by five strikers and the police promptly arrested them.

An Important Marriage.

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 23.—A specia to the Leader from Medina, Ohio, says that this morning, about 1 o'clock, five men overpowered Marshal Frazier, bound, gagged and took him with them. They proceeded to the court house. They broke a window in the office of the county treasurer and entering placed the helpless marshal in a corner and flung a heavy overcoat over him. They then attempted to blow open the safe containing $30,000. Three attempts were made in succession and after three hours fruitless work they were compelled to leave by the approach of daylight.

The contest for the parlor suit with the engineers, and the drill contests for the seal set umbrella and rug, promises to be very exciting. Some dark horses may come to the front and spoil the hopes of some who are already too confident of the result.

The stock of goods which have been donated to the Fair will be disposed of and everybody should come and secure bargains. To-night is positively the last night and our people should come and patronize this charitable undertaking. CLOSING UP.

The Arguments in the Younge-Swann Case Attract Wide Attention.

After Capt. Scott Swann finished his testimony yesterday, the defense rested and the state accepted the situation without further evidence or even cross-examination. Judge O'Rourke allotted five hours to each side for a presentation of the case to the jury, and shortly after 9 o'clock this morning, Mr. Henry Colerick began the opening address for the state. He made a masterly arrangement of the evidence introduced by the commonwealth, scathingly rebuked the inconsistencies of the case, and with matchless eloquence appealed to the "twelve good and true" to maintain the majesty of the law and secure to the citizens of Indiana safety from personal or bodily violence, too frequently menced by the assassin's bullet.

Mr. Colerick covered himself with fresh laurels and the brilliant orator sat down with the silent plaudits of his hearers, even in the face of popular favor so liberally bestowed on the defense.

Mr. Harry C. Hanna followed Mr. Colerick on behalf of Captain Swann. He arranged the facts in a clever way and put them to the jury with characteristic force and power. He paid his respects to Dr. Younge and put to flight some of the evidence introduced by the state.

Mr. C. M. Dawson followed Mr. Hanna, and as we go to press he is in the midst of his plea for the great state of Indiana, which he represents so admirably. Mr. Dawson is an intellectual giant and is equal to any emergency, proving himself a master of everything he surveys. A great crowd thronges the court room, and every eye is riveted on the distinguished prosecutor.

Hon. R. C. Bell, Hon. W. G. Colerick follow Mr. Dawson, leaving Col. R. S. Robertson to close for the state. Great efforts are anticipated from them. If a night session is not held the case will go to the jury before noon to-morrow.

Dr. Younge was not in the court at all to-day and Captain Swann sits there surrounded by his family and friends.

DOUBLE TRACK.

A New Arrangement for the Chicago and West Michigan and Grand Rapids and Indiana Passenger Trains at Grand Rapids.

Supt. P. S. O'Rourke returned yesterday from Grand Rapids, where he, with others affected a desirable compromise for the Fort Wayne line, in which we are all interested as the city holds $100,000 worth of stock in it. The Chicago and West Michigan and Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad companies have made an arrangement by which all passenger trains leaving Grand Rapids going in from the north will use the Grand Rapids and Indiana bridge. A "Y" will be put in at Winter street on the west side, where the Newaygo branch of the Chicago and West Michigan crosses the Grand Rapids and Indiana and all passenger trains going out on either road will cross the Grand Rapids and Indiana bridge switch off on the Chicago and West Michigan at Winter street and run on that track to the Muskegon junction or Mill Creek, where the Grand Rapids and Indiana trains will switch off on their own tracks and the Chicago and West Michigan will continue on their own tracks. It is understood that the contracts for this arrangement have been signed and it will go into effect as soon as the "Y" and cross tracks can be put in.

WELL KNOWN CLERGYMEN

REV. R. HEBER NEWTON, DR. HOWARD CROSBY AND DR. JOHN HALL.

The Liberality of the Rev. Heber Newton, and What He Thinks of Mind Reading—Dr. Crosby's Philanthrophy—Dr. Hall's Strength and Helpfulness.

REV. R. HEBER NEWTON.
(Photographed by Rockwood, N. Y.)

Three of the most prominent clergymen in New York are R. Heber Newton, rector of All Souls' Episcopal church; Howard Crosby, pastor of the Fourth Avenue Presbyterian church, and John Hall, D. D., pastor of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church. Of the three, perhaps Mr. Newton is most prominently before the public just now, because of his recent utterances to a newspaper reporter on the subject of mind reading. He has always been a man of advanced views, and his series of sermons, preached in the latter part of 1883 and the beginning of 1884 on the "Books of Moses," were considered so heretical by some of his more orthodox brethren of the pulpit that charges were preferred to Bishop Potter by them. But the bishop did not think best to order a trial of the alleged offending preacher, and in fact did not in any way notice the charges, officially, for nearly a year. Then he said Mr. Newton had done nothing for which he should be subjected to trial. But in January the bishop asked that the series of sermons in dispute be discontinued and the request was acceded to. Mr. Newton afterward brought the sermons out in book form. In the recent interview with him upon mind reading, Mr. Newton did not hesitate to say that he believed the societies of psychical research that are springing up all over the world are doing good, using the statements made in the report of the London society as a basis for this view. Mr. Newton is a smooth faced, thoughtful man of middle age, and his spectacles add to his countenance an air of studiousness that possibly might be missing without them.

REV. HOWARD CROSBY, D. D.
(Photographed by Rockwood, N. Y.)

Dr. Howard Crosby is best known throughout the country, perhaps, as the founder of the Society for the Prevention of Crime. The work of this organization is practically a crusade against the excessive use of intoxicating liquor, on the theory that most crime comes from that source. He does not propose the absolute suppression of the traffic—in fact, he is not himself a total abstainer—but its close regulation by law. And there seems to be no doubt that his society has accomplished a good deal. Howard Crosby is an effective pulpit speaker. His face is strong and his eyes look out from beneath overhanging eyebrows. His hair and whiskers are liberally sprinkled with gray.

REV. JOHN HALL, D.D.
(Photographed by Rockwood, N. Y.)

John Hall, D.D., was called to be pastor of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church in 1867. Born in County Armagh, Ireland, in 1829, he was made pastor in Armagh after his graduation from the divinity school, and afterward went to Dublin in a similar capacity. At one time he promised to be a leader in Irish Presbyterianism and was made a delegate from the general assembly of the Presbyterian church in Ireland to the churches of the same denomination in the United States. His career since assuming charge of the Fifth Avenue church in New York has been a notable one, and during that time his church and congregation have grown steadily and continuously. As his face, here presented in black and white, shows, he is a man of immense force, and this is not limited to his mentality, for he is tall and stalwart in body. Perhaps his ministry may best be described by the word useful, while in the words of one who has studied him: "His wise and practical religiousness is not altogether unlike the fine piety of the better spirit of the Gallican church in the days of Fenelon."

For 20 years years Henry F. Balcom, of Shirley, Mass., suffered with rheumatism. He found no relief till he took Hood's Sarsaparilla.

WM. KAOUGH, Postmaster.

No person was ever harmed, nor could be, by being assured of the love, the confidence, or the high regard of another, or of others generally. It is self-confidence, not a consciousness of having the confidence of others, that endangers a man's right estimate of his powers and of his position. Flattering or praising a man for his supposed good qualities or attainments may, indeed, promote his over-estimate of himself; but assuring him that he is loved or trusted or honored by another, is simply laying on him a new sense of responsibility and obligation, and giving him another call to prove worthy of the good opinion which is now accorded him. He who is full of self-esteem is hardly the one to have the loving high regard of his fellows; hence he is the least likely to be newly endangered by any expression. But he who is thus esteemed is most likely to be in real need of the inspiration and the cheer that its knowledge would bring to him. Never, never hold back from the heartiest and most explicit assurance of the highest regard and the supremest confidence you may have in any human being—whatever his relation to you—because of a fear, false and foolish as it is, that his self-esteem of him. You may, it is true, esteem him more highly than he deserves; but you cannot, by any possibility, give to any true man more help than he needs in his upward struggle, by an assurance of all the honor you accord, and all the confidence you repose in him—even though their measure be exaggerated.

Piles are one of the most disagreeable and painful of disorders. The disease is of common occurrence and to effect a cure should be treated by proper remedies. THE CITY NEWS.

Esquire Ryan will decide the Brooks case Friday.

The government has reissued a pension to Jacob Wildy, of this city.

F. A. Wilcox, of Fort Wayne, is visiting his mother at Custer, Ohio.

The postoffice and express companies are doing a rushing Christmas trade.

Oil has been struck at Hicksville, O., and now Logansport is going to bore for the stuff.

Ex-Sheriff Braden, of Noble county, was presented with a handsome gold watch on retiring from office.

Ellwood, the mail clerk arrested for robbery, has turned over $800 of his stolen fruits to the government.

R. M. King and W. J. Vesey, of Fort Wayne, were registered at the Grand hotel and Bates house, Indianapolis, yesterday.

James Washburn will erect four more business rooms east of the court yard at Columbia City next summer, and may put up an opera house.

The water tank on the Wabash road at Auburn came near being burned recently. The fire was discovered in time to save it from serious damage.

Mr. J. H. Bass presented to each Pittsburg switchman and yard engineer and fireman a Christmas turkey. Mr. Will Davis distributed the orders—forty in all.

J. F. Lamond has been appointed agent of the Grand Rapids and Indiana at Mackinaw City in place of W. M. Carpenter, who has been transferred to Traverse City.

The people of Toledo have adopted resolutions tending to induce Receiver Cooley, of the Wabash, to make his headquarters in that village. A committee will wait on Judge Cooley with an improved diagram of the town.

The bell-rope of an east-bound Wabash passenger train was left hanging from the rear platform. As the train moved along the knot on the end of the rope caught in a frog, the rope parted, flew back, and several chandeliers in the car were demolished. The conductors now see that the bell rope is secured or pay a penalty.

The Albion Democrat says: "Last evening as the wife of Hon. Henry C. Stanley, late candidate for congress, was descending the steps in front of the kitchen, her right foot slipped and she fell backward, breaking her ankle immediately above the joint. It is thought to be a compound fracture and it is feared it will prove to be a very serious one."

Charley Carnahan, one of the oldest and most popular conductors that ever carried a lantern, has secured a position as conductor on the Cairo, Vincennes and Chicago railroad, and left to make his first trip. His run will be from Danville to Cairo. M. A. McDonald, son of Hon. Joseph E. McDonald, is manager of this road. Mr. Carnahan was dismissed from the Wabash for "trimming up" a spotter.

The Gazette this morning attempts to criticise Judge Lowry for voting to rob the monopolists of some of the plunder they are now forcing from the pockets of the people of the country under the guise of a "protective tariff." Judge Lowry did not vote for free trade, there was no such measure in contemplation and the democratic party is opposed to absolute free trade as long as the government must have a revenue, but honest people believe the war taxes should be reduced in time of peace to the actual necessities of the government.

The Indianapolis Journal has this information and it certainly is exaggerated as far as it refers to Allen county: "Hog cholera made its appearance among the hogs of Adams, Wells and Allen counties early last fall, and has continued with slight abatement and change of locality up to the present time. The aggregate loss in the three counties from this disease in the past four months is in excess of anything of the kind ever before known. No remedy has yet been discovered, and farmers with afflicted hogs are discouraged."

The statistics collected from the sheriffs of the state show more interesting facts in regard to crimes committed. During the year 7,873 prisoners were incarcerated, an increase of of 469 over last year. Sixty-eight were charged with murder, and the same number with bigamy, 14 with manslaughter, 40 with rape, 233 with burglary, 103 with robbery. Nine hundred and eleven were arrested for grand and petit larceny, 28 for perjury, 42 for embezzlement, 60 for forgery and 5,823 for other offenses. Of the whole number, 6,050 were white males and 235 white females. The colored population furnished 240 male and 60 females prisoners. Of native born there were 4,330, against 1,635 foreigners, and 567 whose nativity is unknown. Six hundred and eight were unable to read or write.

Judge Mitchell, of the state supreme court, affirmed the decision of Judge S. M. Hench in the in appealed suit of Thos. G. Ayres et al. vs. Perry A. Randall. The judge says: "Where a purchaser assumes the payment of a debt owing by his vendor to a third person, or where he in terms or expressly agrees to pay off an incumbrance on the land purchased out of the purchase price, such agreement inures to the benefit of the creditor, and may be inforced in equity. But where an agreement provides that the vendor will cause a mortgage on the property sold, which he claims to be paid, to be satisfied, and in case he does not the vendee to retain what he paid to discharge the same out of the amount represented by the notes, it is not enforceable under the rule."

The Princess Roller Skating rink will be open Christmas day and evening, during the holiday week in the morning and afternoons and on Wednesday evening and on New Years day and evening. Music every evening.

Mr. J. Randall Brown, the celebrated mind reader, is now in the city, and will give one of his peculiar and truly marvelous seances next Sunday evening at the Masonic Temple. A Visit to the Postoffice.

On stepping into the postoffice today we were much surprised to notice a fine layout of holiday goods. Stopping to admire the beautiful things set out before us, we were approached by Mr. Rogers, the gentlemanly proprietor of the news stand, who said: "We have had calls for articles of this kind and concluded to put in a stock of such things as we thought would make appropriate Christmas presents. You will notice that we have made our selections carefully. We have here card cases, Christmas cards, velvet handkerchief and glove boxes, satin lined and filled with the best grade of writing paper and envelopes, collar and cuff boxes, jewelry boxes, cut glass ink stands; a large assortment of fancy frames, elegant whisk broom holders, fancy glass paper weights, souvenirs in the shape of hand painted satchel bags, the nobbiest writing sets for ladies, also the very choicest French candies in the market. We would like you to say that we are now manufacturing rubber stamps. We style ourselves the Fort Wayne Rubber Stamp company, and have on hand a large line of stamps such as are used in mercantile houses every day. Stamps made to order on short notice. All of these goods we are selling at very reasonable prices and are sure that those intending to make holiday presents could do no better than to give us a call before making their purchases. The very latest daily papers will be found on our counters, also all the standard publications and periodicals.

Sidney Hubbard, the tonsorial artist at the Tremont house barber shop, wishes to announce to the public that his place of business will be open Saturday until 12 o'clock noon and then be closed for the day, which is just and right that barbers, as well as others, should devote a part of Christmas day to such pleasures that the day brings forth.

A HOUSE IN A HOUSE.

A Magnificent Interior—The Improvements Just Finished by Hattersley & Sons in Their Place of Business.

Messrs. Hattersley & Sons, of 48 East Main street, who for some time past have had workmen engaged in the interior of their place of business, have finished their labors and are now ready to wait on customers. A SENTINEL representative yesterday, through the kindness of one of the firm, was shown this model of perfection which excels anything of the kind yet shown in the west, no expense having been spared to set out the ideas of the proprietors in these improvements. In the sanitary department, they have in perfect working order the different styles of sanitary appliances, put up as they would appear in actual operation, fully equipped and connected, thus showing the purchaser their workings, enabling them to make such tests as they desire and satisfying themselves at once of their merits. Next, their exhibit of bath tubs, wash stands, wash trays, street washers, etc., catches the eye. This display embraces an endless variety of designs in the above household fixtures, including the finest and most costly. In gas fixtures they show something yet unseen in this city, and which will well repay a visit from anyone contemplating a purchase of anything in that line. They have on exhibition a complete line of artistic gas fixtures, portable gas stands, and colored etched and cut globes. Also the Pendu light, a light, portable extension fixture of solid, seamless brass, that will not leak, and may be attached to any chandelier and is highly ornamented, making it a handsome piece of furniture.

Their illumined clock is a handsome and unique piece of mechanism. It consists of a globe similar to a lamp chimney, on which the hours from one to twelve are distinctly cut and which revolves once in twelve hours, the time being indicated by a stationary hand, while the light from the gas jet from the inside enables one to note the hour at any time during the night without arising from bed. When making selections for holiday presents do not neglect to visit this house. Gentlemaniy and courteous attendants will wait on you and deem it a pleasure to show goods.

Ladies' Watches at Voirol's.

Do not fail to attend the concert and Christmas tree lottery to be given by the Fort Wayne Turnverein society at Turners' hall on Sunday evening, Dec. 26. Reineke's full orchestra will be in attendance and a general good time is anticipated. 22-3t

A GREAT INDUCEMENT

We have had a car load of Oil Paintings sent to us by an overloaded artist, with orders to dispose of them to his best possible advantage. We can think of no better way of entirely getting rid of them than by giving every buyer of $5.00 worth of dry goods one of these beautiful paintings. Every one should avail themselves of this opportunity to decorate their home.

A COLD WAVE.

The Werther Bureau Says a Cold Snap is Approaching.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—A cold wave is advancing southeastward from Dakota. It will be felt in the Mississippi valley and in the upper and lower lake regions, the Ohio valley and Tennessee on Saturday, extending nearly to the Atlantic coast.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—The weather indications are as follows:

Kentucky, occasional light snow and rain, slight changes in temperature.

Ohio and Indiana, rain or snow, slightly colder.

Michigan, snow, slightly colder.

A Derby Winner Dies at Sea.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—The steamship Lake Superior, which left Liverpool December 11, arrived in this port yesterday, having on board the English stallion, "Rothschild," consigned to Mr. D. Swigert, of the Elmendorf stud farm, in Kentucky. This was the companion of "King Craft," Lord Falmouth's first derby winner, recently purchased by Mr. Swigert. He was seemingly in good health when he was shipped but began ailing soon after the vessel was on her way and when six days out the horse died and was thrown overboard.

A CONCLAVE.

The Knights of Labor and Lutherans Confer With Mutual Profit.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 23.—Frederick Wilkins, chairman of the state executive board of the Knights of Labor, to-day had a long conference with Pastor Bading, president of the Wisconsin synod of the Lutheran church and president of the Lutheran theological seminary of this city. The conference, though practical, was of a most amicable nature. Mutual explanations removed all existing misunderstandings and an agreement relating to the Fond du Lac difficulty was arrived at. A summary of the result of the conference will be forwarded by Wilkins to General Master Workman Powderly, together with a statement of the position of the Lutheran church on the question at issue. Wilkins is strongly of the opinion that one very important result of the conference will be a modus vivendi by which all present friction been the Catholic and Lutheran churches and Knights of Labor will be removed and future difficulties averted.

A Lilly White Negress.

POWELL, Mich., Dec. 24.—Mrs. Jacob Eldridge, an old colored woman, who has been gradually turning white for seven years, died here yesterday. The greater portion of her body is now a healthy white. The change began by a spot and gradually extended over her body.

AT IT AGAIN.

The Brooklyn City Street Cars Tied by a Strike of Drivers.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—The eleven lines of the Brooklyn City railroad company street cars are tied up to-day. The men claim the company have failed to carry out the agreement made with the men last night in regard to the hours of work. Another cause is that the company would not recognize the Knights of Labor nor the Empire Protective association in its negotiations with its men. About 8 o'clock a dozen cars were started under the protection of the police. In East New York one of the cars was attacked by five strikers and the police promptly arrested them.

An Important Marriage.

NORWALK, O., Dec. 23.—The marriage of Miss Mary N. Sherman, daughter of Nathaniel C. Sherman, of this city, and Burchard Austin Hayes, eldest son of ex-President Hayes, is announced for December 30.

Bequests of a Rich Old Man.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Dec. 23.—The bequests of the late Hon. Daniel W. Lyman amount to $386,000. Each person, male or female, employed by him gets $500. DARING JOB.

Thieves Make Three Attempts to Blow Open a Safe for $80,000.

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 23.—A special to the Leader from Medina, Ohio, says that this morning, about 1 o'clock, five men overpowered Marshal Frazier, bound, gagged and took him with them. They proceeded to the court house. They broke a window in the office of the county treasurer and entering placed the helpless marshal in a corner and flung a heavy overcoat over him. They then attempted to blow open the safe containing $80,000. Three attempts were made in succession and after three hours fruitless work they were compelled to leave by the approach of daylight.

ITS A CO.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 23.—It is stated that the Pennsylvania company has decided to build a road from Hamilton, O., to Richmond, Ind., to complete their line now under construction from Redbank to Hamilton, giving them connection between Cincinnati and Richmond.

Murder and Suicide.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Dec. 23.—Last night, near Newton, Wm. Warner deliberately shot and killed Mrs. Mary Lynch, a young married woman, with whom he had recently been intimate. Warner returned to the house at 8 o'clock this morning and shot himself. His body was found lying across that of his victim. He left a note in which he gave the cause of the murder as jealousy.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—The stock market had a quiet but irregular, though generally firm opening, the advances ranging from ¼ to ½ per cent.

The contest for the parlor suit with the engineers, and the drill contests for the seal set umbrella and rug, promises to be very exciting. Some dark horses may come to the front and spoil the hopes of some who are already too confident of the result.

To-night is positively the last night and one people should come and patronize this charitable undertaking. The management have been untiring in their efforts to please the public and should be given a rousing to-night. Come early and secure bargains.

CLOSING UP.

The Arguments in the Younge-Swann Case Attract Wide Attention.

After Capt. Scott Swann finished his testimony yesterday, the defense rested and the state accepted the situation without further evidence or even cross-examination. Judge O'Rourke allotted five hours to each side for a presentation of the case to the jury, and shortly after 9 o'clock this morning, Mr. Henry Colerick began the opening address for the state. He made a masterly arrangement of the evidence introduced by the commonwealth, scathingly rebuked the inconsistencies of the case, and with matchless eloquence appealed to the "twelve good and true" to maintain the majesty of the law and secure to the citizens of Indiana safety from personal or bodily violence, too frequently menced by the assassin's bullet.

Mr. Colerick covered himself with fresh laurels and the brilliant orator sat down with the silent plaudits of his hearers, even in the face of popular favor so liberally bestowed on the defense.

Mr. Harry C. Hanna followed Mr. Colerick on behalf of Captain Swann. He arranged the facts in a clever way and put them to the jury with characteristic force and power. He paid his respects to Dr. Younge and put to flight some of the evidence introduced by the state.

Mr. O. M. Dawson followed Mr. Hanna, and as we go to press he is in the midst of his plea for the great state of Indiana, which he represents so admirably. Mr. Dawson is an intellectual giant and is equal to any emergency, proving himself a master of everything he surveys. A great crowd throngs the court room, and every eye is riveted on the distinguished prosecutor.

Hon. R. O. Bell, Hon. W. G. Colerick follow Mr. Dawson, leaving Col. R. S. Robertson to close for the state. Great efforts are anticipated from them. If a night session is not held the case will go to the jury before noon to-morrow.

Dr. Younge was not in the court at all to-day and Captain Swann sits there surrounded by his family and friends.

Supt. P. S. The Chicago and West Michigan and Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad companies have made an arrangement by which all passenger trains leaving Grand Rapids going in from the north will use the Grand Rapids and Indiana bridge. A "Y" will be put in at Winter street on the west side, where the Newaygo branch of the Chicago and West Michigan crosses the Grand Rapids and Indiana and all passenger trains going out on either road will cross the Grand Rapids and Indiana bridge switch off on the Chicago and West Michigan at Winter street and run on that track to the Muskegon junction or Mill Creek, where the Grand Rapids and Indiana trains will switch off on their own tracks and the Chicago and West Michigan will continue on their own tracks. It is understood that the contracts for this arrangement have been signed and it will go into effect as soon as the "Y" and cross tracks can be put in.

WELL-KNOWN CLERGYMEN

REV. R. HEBER NEWTON, DR. HOWARD CROSBY AND DR. JOHN HALL.

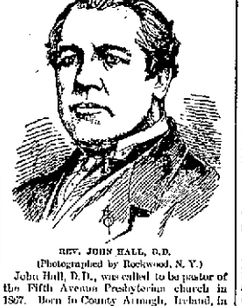
The Liberality of the Rev. Heber Newton, and What He Thinks of Mind Reading—Dr. Crosby's Philanthropy—Dr. Hall's Strength and Helpfulness.

REV. R. HEBER NEWTON.
(Photographed by Rockwood, N. Y.)

Three of the most prominent clergymen in New York are R. Heber Newton, rector of All Souls' Episcopal church; Howard Crosby, pastor of the Fourth Avenue Presbyterian church, and John Hall, D. D., pastor of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church. Of the three, perhaps Mr. Newton is most prominently before the public just now, because of his recent utterances to a newspaper reporter on the subject of mind reading. He has always been a man of advanced views, and his series of sermons, preached in the latter part of 1883 and the beginning of 1884 on the "Books of Moses," were considered so heretical by some of his more orthodox brethren of the pulpit that charges were preferred to Bishop Potter by them. But the bishop did not think best to order a trial of the alleged offending preacher, and in fact did not in any way notice the charges, officially, for nearly a year. Then he said Mr. Newton had done nothing for which he should be subjected to trial. But in January the bishop asked that the series of sermons in dispute be discontinued and the request was acceded to. Mr. Newton afterward brought the sermons out in book form. In the recent interview with him upon mind reading, Mr. Newton did not hesitate to say that he believed the societies of psychical research that are springing up all over the world are doing good, using the statements made in the report of the London society as a basis for this view. Mr. Newton is a smooth faced, thoughtful man of middle age, and his spectacles add to his countenance an air of studiousness that possibly might be missing without them.

REV. HOWARD CROSBY, D. D.
(Photographed by Rockwood, N. Y.)

Dr. Howard Crosby is best known throughout the country, perhaps, as the founder of the Society for the Prevention of Crime. The work of this organization is practically a crusade against the excessive use of intoxicating liquor, on the theory that most crime comes from that source. He does not propose the absolute suppression of the traffic—in fact, he is not himself a total abstinence—but its close regulation by law. And there seems to be no doubt that his society has accomplished a good deal. Howard Crosby is an effective pulpit speaker. His face is strong and his eyes look out from beneath overhanging eyebrows. His hair and whiskers are liberally sprinkled with gray.



REV. JOHN HALL, D.D.
(Photographed by Rockwood, N. Y.)

John Hall, D.D., was called to be pastor of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church in 1867. Born in County Armagh, Ireland, in 1829, he was made pastor in Armagh after his graduation from the divinity school, and afterward went to Dublin in a similar capacity. At one time he promised to be a leader in Irish Presbyterianism and was made a delegate from the general assembly of the Presbyterian church in Ireland to the churches of the same denomination in the United States. His career since assuming charge of the Fifth Avenue church in New York has been a notable one, and during that time his church and congregation have grown steadily and continuously. As his face, here presented in black and white, shows, he is a man of immense force, and this is not limited to his mentality, for he is tall and stalwart in body. Perhaps his ministery may best be described by the word useful, while in the words of one who has studied him: "His wise and practical religiousness is not altogether unlike the fine piety of the better spirit of the Gallican church in the days of Fenelon."

For 20 years yours Henry F. Balcom, of Shirley, Mass., suffered with rheumatism. He found no relief till he took Hood's Sarsaparilla.

WM. KAUNEN, Postmaster.

No person was ever harmed, nor could be, by being assured of the love, the confidence, or the high regard of another, or of others generally. It is self-confidence, not a consciousness of having the confidence of others, that endangers a man's right estimate of his powers and of his position. Flattering or praising a man for his supposed good qualities or attainments may, indeed, promote his over-estimate of himself; but assuring him that he is loved or trusted or honored by another, is simply laying on him a new sense of responsibility and obligation, and giving him another call to prove worthy of the good opinion which is now accorded him. He who is full of self-esteem is hardly the one to have the loving high regard of his fellows; hence he is the least likely to be newly endangered by any expression. But he who is thus esteemed is most likely to be in real need of the inspiration and the cheer that its knowledge would bring to him. Never, never hold back from the heartiest and most explicit assurance of the highest regard and the supremest confidence you may have in any human being—whatever his relation to you—because of a fear, false and foolish as it is, that his self-esteem of him. You may, it is true, esteem him more highly than he deserves; but you cannot, by any possibility, give to any true man more help than he needs in his upward struggle, by an assurance of all the honor you accord, and all the confidence you repose in him—even though their measure be exaggerated.

Pills are one of the most disagreeable and painful of disorders. The disease is of common occurrence and to effect a cure should be treated by proper remedies. There is nothing more suitable by its wonderful curative action than Pond's Extract Ointment, in which the medicinal virtues of Pond's Extract, which are very valuable in the above complaint, are in a state of great concentration. It is advisable in every instance, however, to use both the Extract and the Ointment. Ask your druggist and be sure you get the right articles.

C. F. Schaa, of Erie, Pa., killed one daughter and fatally wounded another. He was arrested for having tried to shoot the policeman.

For Throat Diseases and Coughs, Brown's Bronchial Troches, like all really good things, are frequently imitated. The genuine are sold only in boxes.

The revenue collected by the government for the first month of the operation of the law taxing oleomargarine was $460,000.

Why do you suffer with backache, pain in the chest, rheumatism, or lameness anywhere when a Hop Plaster will surely give you relief. Druggists sell them, 25 cents.

Elizabeth Stump was burned to death at Armanda, Mich. Her brother's fruit evaporator was damaged $20,000.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, etc., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, New York City.

Daily Sentinel

THURSDAY, DEC. 23, 1886.

THE CITY NEWS.

Esquire Ryan will decide the Brooks case Friday.

The government has reinstated a pension to Jacob Wildy, of this city.

F. A. Wilcox, of Fort Wayne, is visiting his mother at Custer, Ohio.

The postoffice and express companies are doing a rushing Christmas trade.

Oil has been struck at Hicksville, O., and now Logansport is going to bore for the stuff.

Ex-Sheriff Braden, of Noble county, was presented with a handsome gold watch on retiring from office.

Ellwood, the mail clerk arrested for robbery, has turned over $800 of his stolen fruits to the government.

R. M. King and W. J. Vesey, of Fort Wayne, were registered at the Grand hotel and Bates house, Indianapolis, yesterday.

James Washburn will erect four more business rooms east of the court yard at Columbia City next summer, and may put up an opera house.

The water tank on the Wabash road at Auburn came near being burned recently. The fire was discovered in time to save it from serious damage.

Mr. J. H. Bass presented to each Pittsburg switchman and yard engineer and fireman a Christmas turkey. Mr. Will Davis distributed the orders—forty in all.

J. F. Lamond has been appointed agent of the Grand Rapids and Indiana at Mackinaw City in place of W. M. Carpenter, who has been transferred to Traverse City.

The people of Toledo have adopted resolutions tending to induce Receiver Cooley, of the Wabash, to make his headquarters in that village. A committee will wait on Judge Cooley with an improved diagram of the town.

The bell-rope of an east-bound Wabash passenger train was left hanging from the rear platform. As the train moved along the knot on the end of the rope caught in a frog, the rope parted, flew back, and several chandeliers in the car were demolished. The conductors now see that the bell rope is secured or pay a penalty.

The Albion Democrat says: "Last evening as the wife of Hon. Henry C. Stanley, late candidate for congress, was descending the steps in front of the kitchen, her right foot slipped and she fell backward, breaking her ankle immediately above the joint. It is thought to be a compound fracture and it is feared it will prove to be a very serious one."

Charley Carnahan, one of the oldest and most popular conductors that ever carried a lantern, has secured a position as conductor on the Cairo, Vincennes and Chicago railroad, and left to make his first trip. His run will be from Danville to Cairo. M. A. McDonald, son of Hon. Joseph E. McDonald, is manager of this road. Mr. Carnahan was dismissed from the Wabash for "trimming up" a spotter.

The Gazette this morning attempts to criticise Judge Lowry for voting to rob the monopolists of some of the plunder they are now forcing from the pockets of the people of the country under the guise of a "protective tariff." Judge Lowry did not vote for free trade, there was no such measure in contemplation and the democratic party is opposed to absolute free trade as long as the government must have a revenue, but honest people believe the war taxes should be reduced in time of peace to the actual necessities of the government.

The Indianapolis Journal has this information and it certainly is exaggerated as far as it refers to Allen county: "Hog cholera made its appearance among the hogs of Adams, Wells and Allen counties early last fall, and has continued with slight abatement and change of locality up to the present time. The aggregate loss in the three counties from this disease in the past four months is in excess of anything of the kind ever before known. No remedy has yet been discovered, and farmers with afflicted hogs are discouraged."

The statistics collected from the sheriffs of the state show more interesting facts in regard to crimes committed. During the year 7,873 prisoners were incarcerated, an increase of of 469 over last year. Sixty-eight were charged with murder, and the same number with bigamy, 14 with manslaughter, 40 with rape, 233 with burglary, 103 with robbery. Nine hundred and eleven were arrested for grand and petit larceny, 28 for perjury, 42 for embezzlement, 60 for forgery and 5,528 for other offenses. Of the whole number, 6,050 were white males and 235 white females. The colored population furnished 240 male and 60 females prisoners. Of native born there were 4,330, against 1,635 foreigners, and 567 whose nativity is unknown. Six hundred and eight were unable to read or write.

Mrs. M. J. Doty, of 28 Leith street, is ill.

The county commissioners adjourned yesterday sine die.

The superior court jury has been dismissed until Jan 3.

A Visit to the Postoffice.

On stepping into the postoffice today we were much surprised to notice a fine layout of holiday goods. Stopping to admire the beautiful things set out before us, we were approached by Mr. Rogers, the gentlemanly proprietor of the news stand, who said: "We have had calls for articles of this kind and concluded to put in a stock of such things as we thought would make appropriate Christmas presents. You will notice that we have made our selections carefully. We have here card cases, Christmas cards, velvet handkerchief and glove boxes, satin lined and filled with the best grade of writing paper and envelopes, collar and cuff boxes, jewelry boxes, cut glass ink stands; a large assortment of fancy frames, elegant whisk broom holders, fancy glass paper weights, souvenirs in the shape of hand painted satchel tags, the nobbiest writing sets for ladies, also the very choicest French candies in the market. We would like you to say that we are now manufacturing rubber stamps. We style ourselves the Fort Wayne Rubber Stamp company, and have on hand a large line of stamps such as are used in mercantile houses every day. Stamps made to order on short notice. All of these goods we are selling at very reasonable prices and are sure that those intending to make holiday presents could do no better than to give us a call before making their purchases. Sidney Hubbard, the tonsorial artist at the Tremont house barber shop, wishes to announce to the public that his place of business will be open Saturday until 12 o'clock noon and then be closed for the day, which is just and right that barbers, as well as others, should devote a part of Christmas day to such pleasures that the day brings forth.

A HOUSE IN A HOUSE.

A Magnificent Interior—The Improvements Just Finished by Hattersley & Sons in Their Place of Business.

Messrs. Hattersley & Sons, of 48 East Main street, who for some time past have had workmen engaged in the interior of their place of business, have finished their labors and are now ready to wait on customers. A SENTINEL representative yesterday, through the kindness of one of the firm, was shown this model of perfection which excels anything of the kind yet shown in the west, no expense having been spared to set out the ideas of the proprietors in these improvements. In the sanitary department, they have in perfect working order the different styles of sanitary appliances, put up as they would appear in actual operation, fully equipped and connected, thus showing the purchaser their workings, enabling them to make such tests as they desire and satisfying themselves at once of their merits. Next, their exhibit of bath tubs, wash stands, wash trays, street washers, etc., catches the eye. This display embraces an endless variety of designs in the above household fixtures, including the finest and most costly. In gas fixtures they show something yet unseen in this city, and which will repay a visit from anyone contemplating a purchase of anything in that line. They have on exhibition a complete line of artistic gas fixtures, portable gas stands, and colored etched and cut globes. Also the Pendu light, a light, portable extension fixture of solid, seamless brass, that will not leak, and may be attached to any chandelier and is highly ornamented, making it a handsome piece of furniture.

Their illumined clock is a handsome and unique piece of mechanism. It consists of a globe similar to a lamp chimney, on which the hours from one to twelve are distinctly cut and which revolves once in twelve hours, the time being indicated by a stationary hand, while the light from the gas jet from the inside enables one to note the hour at any time during the night without arising from bed. When making selections for holiday presents do not neglect to visit this house. Gentlemanly and courteous attendants will wait on you and deem it a pleasure to show goods.

A GREAT INDUCEMENT

We have had a car load of Oil Paintings sent to us by an overloaded artist, with orders to dispose of them to his best possible advantage. We can think of no better way of entirely getting rid of them than by giving every buyer of $5.00 worth of dry goods one of these beautiful paintings. Every one should avail themselves of this opportunity to decorate their home.
